HOMEBREW

All divisions are open to all levels of expertise. For Novice or Professional consideration place appropriate letter on the entry form. A professional is someone who sells or instructs. Entrants must be 21 years of age or older.

N: Novice - 2 years or less of brewing experience

P: Professional - Instructor or Master Brewer

If not specified, entry will be classified OPEN.

- This is a sanctioned American Homebrewers Association competition and will be judged accordingly by the Alaska State Fair Rules using the AHA competition descriptors and definitions.
- Certified AHA judges of all levels will be able to earn judging points as defined by AHA.
- All judges must pre-register. No Walk in Judges.
- All decisions are final.
- If you wish scoring results, you must include with your entries a stamped, self addressed #10 envelope with your entries. Results will be mailed after the fair.
- Entrants may only submit one entry per subcategory.
- For categories that have no subcategories, you may only submit one entry.
- Submit three bottles (10 to 22 ounces) per entry for beers, sparkling meads, and ciders.
- Still mead or cider entries can submit one large 22 ounce/750 ml bottle or three 10 to 12 ounce bottles.
- Every bottle must be free of paper labels or other markings.
- All mead and cider entries must be designated dry, semi-sweet, sweet and sparkling, petillant, or still.
- All mead entries must indicate mead strength as hydromel (light mead), standard mead, or sack mead (strong mead).
- If you enter categories with special processes or add-ins (like fruit, spices, herbs, etc.) please provide the style and/or unique ingredients or processes. This information is necessary for accurate judging of entries.
