Previously assigned entry numbers may be researched on entry day. 4-H entry numbers are not valid for Open Fair competition.

Each exhibit requires a completed entry form available on entry day. Those who enter many exhibits may obtain forms before entry day from the Main Office on the fairgrounds.

Upon entering, exhibitors receive a yellow copy of the entry form. This must be retained and presented as a claim check to pick up exhibits.

Exhibits must remain on display until designated pick-up dates. No early pick up allowed.

Unclaimed exhibits become the property of Alaska State Fair, Inc., and are disposed of after 30 days unless otherwise arranged for in advance.

General Entry Information

Entries are open to all. Entries without entrant contact or mailing information will be automatically disqualified and not judged.

The Fair management or Department Superintendent may reject any exhibit offered if it is objectionable in any way, requires excessive space, or if the department capacity is full.

“For Sale” signs and business cards are not permitted on any exhibit during the Fair, and raffles may not be held within departments, unless approved by management.

Once entered, all articles come entirely under the control and jurisdiction of the Fair management, and may not be removed or disturbed by exhibitors until designated pick-up days.

Entries must be by the maker or grower. Livestock, rabbits, and poultry are to be entered by the current owner.

Except for animals or plants, exhibits entered in previous Alaska State Fairs may not be re-entered. An entry deemed as such by a Superintendent or Judge will be disqualified. All items must have been completed since the previous Fair.

The Fair accepts mailed or freighted entries from non-local exhibitors “when accompanied by return postage and instructions for return. Insurance of mailed items is encouraged.” Items may be mailed to Alaska State Fair, Exhibit Department, 2075 Glenn Highway, Palmer, AK 99645. Please mail your entry by August 1st to insure timely delivery.

No entrant may compete in more than one category per department, i.e. Open and Professional. Senior is not considered a sub-category. If sub-category is not specified, entry will be classified as Open. Unique rules may prevail in any department.

Items must be entered in the proper category and accompanied by an entry form. Improperly completed forms may result in disqualification and forfeited awards. Exhibitors are fully responsible for correct entry forms and classes. Superintendents may transfer erroneously entered exhibits to proper classes, and if such classes have been judged, judging will not be reopened.
