JUDGING

The Alaska State Fair uses the American System of judging. Design, composition, originality, creativity, color saturation, value, tone lighting, contrast emotional response, technical expertise, and craftsmanship will all be considerations. All work will be judged on presentation (framing, proper hanging hardware, matting if used, cleanliness). Pieces that do not fall under the listed rules will not be judged but may be displayed.

ARTWORK DOS / DON'TS:

DO:

- All artwork entered into the Alaska State Fair is created solely by the human contributor, except as by assurance through instruction in workshop category.
- Enter Art that is sized as follows: Maximum size 60 united inches (example: height + width: 24+36 = 60 united inches).
- Minimum size is 18 united inches (example: height + width: 8+10 = 18 united inches)
- Fair will accept multiples of 3 or less in a series adding up to <60 united inches, no >18 united inches
- Present original art you have made yourself within the last two years (2022, 2023).
- Do enter art that fits the size requirements.
- Present art in frames that are sturdy and that enhance your hard work.
- Present frames with and without out glass that are clean with no dust or fingerprints.
- Follow framing guides.

- Consider copyright laws when using reference materials. Do ask for permission from the reference / copyright owner and give credit for the use of their work in your art!
- Look for mail in instructions \(click here to view/print\). DO enter no matter where you are in ALASKA!
- Enter once per class, three pieces per entrant. Put your name and contact info on paper and attach to the artwork.
- Do pick up and drop off your art at the specific times available and stated in this guide. Get a friend to pick up on time if you can't. Remember to bring your green entry ticket as proof of ownership. Unclaimed art becomes fair property.
- Do please display your lovely artwork for the entire fair! Please only pick up your artwork on authorized days listed at the top of this guide.

DON'T:

- Don't present art that is not made by yourself, alone, including artwork which has been put together with the help of an instructor, unless you are entering (ONCE) in WORKSHOP Class.
 - Don't use generative Artificial Intelligence / AI technology (MidJourney, DALL-E, etc) in your artwork. We want to see your own beautiful, human-imagined works!
 - Don't enter paintings under 18 united inches nor over 60 united. (5x7 is only 12 united inches)
 - Don't use photo reference that is not your own or borrowed without permission.
 - Don't put your contact info on the back of the canvas material itself. Over time it can come through.
 - Don't present art you have purchased as a kit and completed.
 - Don't present art that is more than two years old.
 - Don't present art that has been previously entered at the Alaska State Fair.
 - Don't present artwork with Political Slogans or imagery.
 - Don't present more than 3 in a series. (diptics2/triptic 3)
 - Don't present art that is dusty, fingerprinted.
 - Don't present art with nudity – such works are prohibited to ensure an “all ages inclusive” Alaska State Fair.
 - Don't forget your yellow fair card or pick it up before your entry prior to checking in at ART EXHIBITS.
 - Don't forget to pick up your art on time. Your work will become property of the Alaska State Fair.

FRAMING ART WORK DOS / DON'TS:

DO:

- Always put charcoal, graphite, ink, pastel and watercolor on paper behind glass for protection.
- Use a frame that can be securely wired with hanging hardware.
- Frame acrylic or oil paintings in frames without glass.
- Always frame canvas panels.
- Present gallery wrapped canvases that have wrapped edges painted with design or dark painted edges to the back presenting a finished, gallery type painting.
- Present drawings, watercolor, pastel, charcoal in frames with glass for protection that can be securely wired with hanging hardware.
- Hang with D ring or eyelet hardware with wire. Find at Fred Meyers or Lowes.

Acceptable Framing:

DON'T:

- Don't present any unframed canvases with any staples that are not hidden while hanging.
- Don't present paintings that are not fully dry.
- Don't present any canvas panel without frame.
- Don't use string, fishing line, yarn, rope, saw tooth hangers (Cardboard OR metal) or taped/glued/ or soldered wire. (Frames with sawtooth, cardboard, or other type flimsy hangers are not safe for your artwork or artwork that hangs near it as it could malfunction and drop causing breakage or damage to yours or surrounding artist's work.)
- Don't present work that is attached to "Sticky Hanger", regardless of age.
- Don't present anything not ready to hang.

DO NOT USE:

REMINDER:

- The superintendent reserves the right to not hang any entry.
- Entries not meeting any and all requirements (including framing requirements) will be disqualified.
- Disqualified entries will not be judged, however, if space permits, they may, in that event, be displayed.
